Presidents' Messages

Dear Alumnus,

Greetings from the College of the Ozarks Alumni Association. It was nice to see many of you at Homecoming. We certainly had four outstanding and worthy award recipients, and the weather was great. I hope to see more of you the first Saturday of November this year.

The College will host the National NAIA Division II Men's Basketball Tournament again in March. It is always a very enjoyable tournament and provides the College an opportunity to share its story.

Congratulations to the College of the Ozarks Armstrong McDonald School of Nursing for receiving national accreditation. C of O graduates are always eager to serve others, and what better way than as a nurse.

Thank you for your generous contributions to the Alumni Scholarship Fund. They will help many students in the years to come.

I ask for your continued financial support for the College so that it can continue providing a quality Christian education to youth who are willing to work.

Sincerely,
Roy Johnson
Association President

Lifetime Members 2010

Alumni Association Lifetime Memberships are credited to the Alumni Scholarship Endowment Fund that continues to provide scholarships to worthy C of O students each year. Special thanks to these new 2010 Lifetime Members.

Dear Alumnus,

The year 2011 ushered in a new class of students ready to learn, work, and grow in character. It also marked the completion of a tremendous, previous year. During 2010, the College celebrated its 104th birthday, graduated its largest class ever, pinned the first class of nursing students, received national accreditation of the Armstrong McDonald School of Nursing, and sent nearly 50 students to escort WWII Veterans to battle sites in Europe and the Pacific.

With many great achievements, College of the Ozarks remains an Ozarks Classic, which was aptly the theme of this past Homecoming. Some things never go out of style. At College of the Ozarks, these things are faith, hope, and hard work.

The word opportunity is defined as “a combination of circumstances favorable for the purpose; fit time; good chance or occasion.” College of the Ozarks provides the opportunity for young people to work for a college education and graduate debt-free. While the personal circumstances of individual students at the institution may vary, a common thread remains—the guarantee of a quality, Christian education for those who may not have financial means to procure such training, but who are willing to work.

Last May, 300 young people realized their dream of a college education because of opportunities afforded at “Hard Work U.” One opportunity for students comes by way of an Alumni Scholarship, which is awarded to select students who demonstrate financial need and a strong desire to follow educational pursuits. Hannah, a recent Alumni Scholarship recipient, is a junior studying human biology/pre-medicine. Because of the scholarship, this summer she was able to shadow doctors at a local hospital and work part-time to save money for medical school, advancing one step closer to her goal of becoming a medical doctor.

Another recipient is studying nursing at the College’s Armstrong McDonald School of Nursing. Her family, like many others, faces financial hardships caused by illness. Money for her nursing books was not available. The Alumni Scholarship could not have come at a better time for this aspiring nurse, who will walk this May with the second class to graduate from the nationally-accredited program. She wrote: “What a wonderful experience to be able to learn and grow in an atmosphere with other Christians! This college and this scholarship are blessings for which I am truly thankful.”

These are two examples of opportunity—two chances for brighter futures.

With the year just underway, the promise of many new opportunities awaits.

Sincerely,
Jerry C. Davis, President

Dear Alumnus,

Over the past 12 years, the Student Alumni Association has actively participated in the Alumni Scholarship Campaign, which has raised over $425,000 for the Alumni Scholarship Fund. We have completed four successful mail campaigns thus far, and we hope that this year will be the best yet.

As the president of this organization, I have the pleasure of working with these deserving scholarship recipients. Your help is greatly appreciated in these young, hardworking men and women. Each has proven his or her worth and expressed gratefulness for all who have contributed to the scholarship throughout the years.

By participating in the 2011 Alumni Scholarship Fund Drive, you will have the opportunity to help several deserving and dedicated College of the Ozarks students get one step closer to their future endeavors. We value your support, and the students are extremely appreciative of your participation. Your opportunity to continue this life-enriching scholarship will arrive in your mailbox in April. Should you not receive a letter, please call the Alumni Office at (417) 690-2208.

Sincerely,
Morgan Hickey '12
Student Alumni Association President

WHY
ASSOCIATION?
Growing Our Alumni Membership

In short, the Alumni Association needs you. College of the Ozarks and its students also need you. Where would you and I be today, were it not for the College of the Ozarks? It has been often said that “the worth of an institution is measured by the accomplishments of its graduates.”

Last year, alumni raised almost $282,000 through its fund-raising programs for the College.

Eventually, alumni working together and giving selflessly should be able to annually give upwards of $1,000,000. It all starts with paying your membership dues of $10 per year to join the Alumni Association of the College of the Ozarks. A lifetime membership would be even better at $200. Then, together we could strategize on how to raise funds for the College and also encourage greater annual giving on behalf of all alumni.

Alumni of College of the Ozarks

number over 8000; a high percentage of those graduates are making a difference and doing great things around the nation and world. Many have reached personal benchmarks and professional levels never imagined when leaving high school. Most of the campus buildings are still standing where those “high achievers” attended classes. Students from all over are still walking the campus and challenging professors in the classrooms; administrators and staff are still working overtime with limited resources to support the academic and character development of the students.

All of the above costs money. A dollar, as you well know, won't buy what it used to buy. More and more donors are needed to help maintain a quality educational experience for students at College of the Ozarks. Your help is needed! The Alumni Association serves as a vehicle to channel funds to the College in a collective manner by alumni.

The vision of College of the Ozarks is to develop citizens of Christ-like character who are well-educated, hard-working, and patriotic.

LONGTIME EMPLOYEES RECEIVE SPECIAL HONOR DURING HOMECOMING BASKETBALL GAME

Three longtime College of the Ozarks employees received a special honor during the Homecoming basketball game Saturday afternoon. They were honored by having parts of the athletic complex named for them.

Dr. Marilyn C. Graves

Dr. Howell W. Keeter

Mr. Al Waller

instrumental in starting the women's basketball and volleyball teams and was the first coach of both teams. A bronze plaque featuring her name will hang in the entrance to the new gymnasium.

Having a gym, court, or athletic complex named in someone's honor doesn't happen every day, but even more unique is the years of service these particular individuals have given to College of the Ozarks.

College of the Ozarks named the entire athletic complex for Dr. Howell W. Keeter, who, over the course of 40 years, has served in various positions, including work coordinator, chancellor, trustee, acting president, and (currently) Vice President. Additionally, he has been an avid supporter of the athletic program and was instrumental in securing C of O as host of the NAIA Men's Division II Basketball Tournament. His name now adorns the stone front of the athletic complex.

In honor of her 40 years of dedicated service to the College and its students, the gymnasium in the new Garrison addition to the complex will be named for Dr. Marilyn C. Graves. During her tenure, she has been a coach, professor, academic division chair, and (currently) Dean of the College. She was

The court in the athletic complex has been named the Al Waller Family Court, for Athletic Director Al Waller and his family. Waller has worked 33 years for College of the Ozarks. He coached the Men's Basketball team for 25 of those years and has served as the Athletic Director. Waller also teaches college math classes. He, too, has been a driving force in the College's hosting of the NAIA Men's Division II Basketball Tournament.

VIRTUAL BOBCAT FAN ZONE NOW OFFERING LIVE VIDEO-STREAMING OF GAMES

College of the Ozarks sports fans who can't make the game, won't have to miss the action. They now can go to the virtual Bobcat Fan Zone on the College's athletic website, <http://www.cof.edu/athletics.asp>, and click on the "Bobcats Live" link to watch live video-streaming with audio on all home games. This new offering is sponsored by the Bobcat Booster Club.

In addition to streaming live games, the "Bobcats Live" site offers some previous games on-demand and provides a schedule of upcoming C of O games that fans can watch online.

The Bobcat Fan Zone offers other opportunities on how to follow the Bobcats, including live stats at "Webcast" and a schedule of games, "Radio Broadcast," that will be broadcast on KOMC-FM 100.1.
